

HOLY CROSS LEGACY HALL

With deep gratitude for the generosity of our friends who have remembered the Sisters of the Holy Cross with a planned gift.

In memory of Thomas F. McHugh

Helping the sisters lay a firm foundation for the future.

Acknowledgements

We are grateful to Gregory A. Kil of KIL Architecture Planning for sharing his expertise with us. Since Greg was responsible for the original design of the hallway itself, he could extend his design expertise into the new use of the space.

We are also grateful to Ryan Kring and US Signcrafters for designing the donor recognition plaques.

Holy Cross Legacy Club

What is the Holy Cross Legacy Club?

The Mission of the Holy Cross Legacy Club is to recognize those who, through “planned gifts,” name the Sisters of the Holy Cross, Inc., as their primary or contingent beneficiary. A “planned gift” is simply a gift that will be distributed sometime in the future. Since 1996, the sisters have been welcoming new members to the Legacy Club and expressing their deep appreciation.

Who is involved?

The members are ordinary people from all walks of life with different income levels, professions and passion, whose extraordinary generosity will make a very positive difference in the future of the Holy Cross congregation. Because of their love and concern for the sisters, their names are inscribed here and they will not be forgotten. May their gifts inspire others to make a difference, too.

In memoriam

The Sisters of the Holy Cross are grateful to Thomas F. McHugh in whose memory this hallway was designed.

Thomas and his eight siblings, and most of his nieces and nephews, graduated from St. Paul the Apostle School in Manhattan, New York, sometime between 1910 and the 1960s. They all express their indebtedness “to the wonderful Sisters of the Holy Cross who taught them and are grateful for the excellent education they received.” They remember the sisters fondly.

Thomas died on December 28, 2004, at the age of 86 and left a legacy to the sisters in his will.

Legacy Club Members

The listing reflects all who have notified the Sisters of the Holy Cross that they are a beneficiary of a planned gift, whether it is a bequest, IRA or retirement plan, life insurance policy, charitable remainder trust, charitable lead trust, charitable gift annuity or other form of planned giving. Their names are listed in chronological order by the date of the notice of the gift. This list is actually longer than it appears as some donors have chosen to remain anonymous. Deceased members are identified with a small cross in front of their names.

Deceased Legacy Donors

The Sisters of the Holy Cross have received bequests from many friends who chose not to pre-notify the congregation of their intention. We recognize these people in chronological order by the date of their bequest.

You are invited

Membership in the Holy Cross Legacy Club is always open. The only requirement is a desire to help support the good works and lives of the Sisters of the Holy Cross into the future. If you have made plans for any kind of deferred gift, please let us know. We celebrate intentions—we know plans can change.

I would like more information about the Holy Cross Legacy Club.

I have already made a planned gift to the Sisters of the Holy Cross and would like to be included in the Holy Cross Legacy Club.
